SPONSORS

Ford Foundation
The Ford Foundation, a global philanthropy organization, has been committed for over ninety years to disrupting inequality in all its forms. Guided by a vision of social justice, it strives for a world where everyone can fully express and protect their human rights, participate in decisions that affect them, enjoy equitable access to society’s resources, and realize their full potential. The Foundation’s enduring mission is to alleviate poverty and injustice, strengthen democratic values, promote international cooperation, and advance human achievement.

TrustAfrica
TrustAfrica, a dynamic and independent foundation, is dedicated to securing the conditions for democracy and equitable development across Africa. Through its role as a convener, catalyst, and supporter, it empowers civil society organizations to strengthen democracy, foster sustainable development, and harness African philanthropic support for democratization.
This pivotal gathering, celebrating Africa Day, is a timely intervention in the face of significant challenges and resurgent threats of military coups that shadow the continent’s democratic advancements. The summit will engage leading minds to discuss pathways and challenges to democratic resilience and governance across the continent, exploring sustainable solutions tailored to the continent’s unique socio-political landscape.
